

Constitution of
The Folkestone Nepalese Community (FNC),
Kent, UK

Constitution of the Folkestone Nepalese Community (FNC)

Constitution of a Charitable Incorporated Organisation with a voting membership (in addition to the charity trustees)

Date of constitution (last amended): 25 October 2020.

1. Name

The name of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation ("the FNC") is the Folkestone Nepalese Community (FNC) and in this constitution it is called the FNC.

2. National location of principal office

The principal office of the FNC is in Folkestone, Kent, England.

3. Objects

The objects of the FNC are:

a. To promote for the benefit of the Nepalese and Gurkha veterans residing in Folkestone and the surrounding area by:

- (1) The advancement of education and training;
- (2) The relief of poverty, sickness and distress;
- (3) The promotion of good health; and
- (4) The provision of recreational facilities in the interests of social welfare with the object of improving their conditions of life.

b. To advance the education of the public on all aspects of Nepalese history and culture.

c. The relief of financial need and suffering among victims of natural or other kinds of disaster in Nepal in the form of money (or other means deemed suitable) for persons, bodies, organisations.

Nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the FNC for the purposes which are not charitable.

4. Powers

The FNC has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the FNC's powers include power to:

- (1) Borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The FNC must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;

- (2) Buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- (3) Sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the FNC. In exercising this power, the FNC must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119-123 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (4) Employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of FNC. The FNC may employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of those clauses.
- (5) Deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of FNC to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000.

5. Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of FNC must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - (a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the FNC or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of FNC.
 - (b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at FNC's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (2) None of the income or property of FNC may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of FNC. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:
 - (a) A benefit from the FNC as a beneficiary of the FNC;
 - (b) Reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to FNC.
- (3) Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

(1) General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- (a) Buy or receive any goods or services from FNC on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

- (b) Sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the FNC;
- (c) Be employed by, or receive any remuneration from the FNC;
- (d) Receive any other financial benefit from the FNC:

Unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission 9“the Commission”) has been obtained. In this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

- (a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the FNC as a beneficiary of FNC provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- (b) A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to FNC where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, sections 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the FNC with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the FNC by the charity trustee or connected person.
- (d) A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to FNC at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the FNC. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the FNC on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only - controls

The FNC and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2) (c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the FNC and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).

- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the FNC to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the FNC.
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.
- (g) A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

A charity trustee must:

- (1) Declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the FNC or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the FNC which has not previously been declared; and
- (2) Absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the FNC and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the FNC if it is wound up

If the FNC is wound up, the members of the FNC have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

9. Membership of the FNC

(1) Admission of new members

(a) Eligibility

Membership of the FNC is open to anyone, who is aged 18 and over, in particular, but not exclusively of Nepalese origin or married to or have a partner of Nepalese origin, who is interested in furthering its purposes, and who, by applying for membership, has indicated his or her agreement to become a member. A member must be an individual.

(b) Admission procedure

The charity trustees of the FNC:

- (i) May require applications for membership to be made in any reasonable way that they decide;
- (ii) Shall, if they approve an application for membership notify the applicant of their decision within 21 days;
- (iii) May refuse an application for membership if they believe that it is in the best interest of the FNC for them to do so;
- (iv) Shall, if they decide to refuse an application for membership, give the applicant their reasons for doing so, within a reasonable time of the decision being taken, and give the applicant the opportunity to appeal against the refusal; and
- (v) Shall give fair consideration to any such appeal, and shall inform the applicant of their decision, but any decision to confirm refusal of the application for membership shall be final.

(c) Types of membership:

- (i) Registered Member: All eligible persons, who support the work of the FNC and are aged 18 or over and who have paid their membership subscription shall become a Registered Member of the FNC on approval of their application by the Charity Trustees of the FNC. They shall be entitled to nominate and vote at meetings, and elect Trustees.
- (ii) Ordinary Member: All eligible persons, who have not paid or are in arrears with their membership subscription, shall become an Ordinary Member of the FNC. They shall not be entitled to nominate or vote at meetings, or elect Trustees. They may opt to become a Registered Member of the FNC, if they are willing to support the work of the FNC and pay membership subscription.
- (iii) Honorary Member: A distinguished person, who is not eligible to become a Registered Member, but their association is vital to the FNC, may become an Honorary Member of the FNC by a resolution passed by a two-third majority of those voting members present at the AGM. They shall not be obliged to pay for membership and will not be entitled to nominate or vote at meetings, or elect Trustees.

(2) Transfer of membership

Membership of the FNC cannot be transferred to anyone else.

(3) Duty of members

It is the duty of each member of the FNC to exercise his or her powers as a member of the FNC in the way he or she decides in good faith would most likely to further the purposes of the FNC.

(4) Termination of membership

- (a) Membership of the FNC comes to an end if:
 - (i) The member dies; or
 - (ii) The member sends a notice of resignation to the charity trustees; or
 - (iii) any sum of money owed by the member to the FNC is not paid in full within six months of it falling due; or
 - (iv) The charity trustees decide that it is in the best interest of the FNC that the member in question should be removed from membership; and pass a resolution to that effect.
- (b) Before the charity trustees take any decision to remove someone from membership of the FNC they must:
 - (i) Inform the member of the reason why it is proposed to remove him, her or it from membership;
 - (ii) Give the member at least 21 clear days' notice in which to make representations to the charity trustees as to why he, she or it should not be removed from membership;
 - (iii) At a duly constituted meeting of the charity trustees consider whether or not the member should be removed from membership;
 - (iv) Consider at that meeting any representation which the member makes as to why the member should not be removed; and
 - (v) Allow the member, or member's representative, to make those representations in person at that meeting, if the member so chooses.

(5) Membership fees

The Trustees of the FNC shall propose to the members at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) the rate of membership subscription for adoption by the members. The members shall be required to pay such membership subscription as adopted.

(6) Register of members

The FNC will keep a register of its members, and the name and address of each member, the date on which a person was registered as a member, and the date on which any person ceases to be a member, shall be entered in the register.

10. Members' decisions

(1) General provisions

Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause (4) of this clause, decisions of the members of the FNC may be taken either by vote at a general meeting as provided in sub-clause (2) of this clause by written resolution as provided in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

(2) Taking ordinary decisions by vote

Subject to sub-clause (4) of this clause, any decision of the members of the FNC may be taken by means of a resolution at a general meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting.

(3) Taking ordinary decisions by written resolution without a general meeting

- (a) Subject to sub-clause (4) of this clause, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of all the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective, provided that:
 - (i) A copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to all the members eligible to vote; and
 - (ii) A simple majority of members has signified its agreement to the resolution in a document or documents which are received at the principal office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date. The document signifying a member's agreement must be authenticated by their signature (or in the case of an organisation which is a member, by execution according to its usual procedure), by a statement of their identity accompanying the document, or in such other manner as the FNC has specified.
- (b) The resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members have signified their agreement.
- (c) Eligibility to vote on the resolution is limited to members who are members of the FNC on the date when the proposal is first circulate in accordance with paragraph (a) above.
- (d) Not less than 10% of the members of the FNC may request the charity trustees to make a proposal for decision by the members.
- (e) The charity trustees must within 21 days of receiving such a request comply with it if:

- (i) The proposal is not frivolous or vexatious, and does not involve the publication of defamatory material.
 - (ii) The proposal is stated with sufficient clarity to enable effect to be given to it if it is agreed by the members; and
 - (iii) Effect can lawfully be given to the proposal if it is so agreed.
- (f) Sub-clauses (a) to (c) of this clause apply to a proposal made at the request of members.

(4) Decisions that must be taken in a particular way

- (a) Any decision to remove a trustee must be taken in accordance with clause 15(2).
- (b) Any decision to amend this constitution must be taken in accordance with 28 of this constitution (Amendment of Constitution).
- (c) Any decision to wind up or dissolve the FNC must be taken in accordance with clause 29 of this constitution (Voluntary winding up or dissolution). Any decision to amalgamate or transfer the undertaking of the FNC to one or more other FNCs must be taken in accordance with the provisions of the Charities Act 2011.

11. General meetings of members

(1) Types of general meeting

There must be an Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the members of the FNC. The first AGM must be held within 18 months of the registration of the FNC, and subsequent AGMs must be held at intervals of not more than 15 months. The AGM must receive the annual statement of accounts (duly audited or examined where applicable) and the trustees' annual report, and must elect trustees as required under clause 13.

Other general meetings of the members of the FNC may be held anytime.

All general meetings must be held in accordance with the following provisions.

(2) Calling general meetings

- (a) The charity trustees:
 - (i) Must call the annual general meeting of the members of the FNC in accordance with sub-clause (1) of this clause, and identify it as such in the notice of the meeting; and
 - (ii) May call any other general meeting of the members at any time.
- (b) The charity trustees must within 21 days, call a general meeting of the members of the FNC if:

- (i) They receive a request to do so from at least 10% of the members of the FNC; and
 - (ii) The request states the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting, and is authenticated by the member(s) making the request.
- (c) If, at the time of any such request, there has not been any general meeting of the members of the FNC for more than 12 months, then sub-clause (b)(i) of this clause shall have effect as if 5% were substituted for 10%.
- (d) Any such request may include particulars of a resolution that may properly be proposed, and is intended to be proposed, at the meeting.
- (e) A resolution may only properly be proposed if it is lawful, and is not defamatory, frivolous or vexatious.
- (f) Any general meeting called by the charity trustees at the request of the members of the FNC must be held within 28 days from the date on which it is called.
- (g) If the charity fails to comply with this obligation to call a general meeting at the request of its members, then the members who requested the meeting may themselves call a general meeting.
- (h) A general meeting called in this way must be held not more than 3 months after the date when the members first requested the meeting.
- (i) The FNC must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members calling a general meeting by reason of failure of the charity trustees to duly call the meeting, but the FNC shall be entitled to be indemnified by the charity trustees who are responsible for such failure.

(3) Notice of general meetings

- (a) The charity trustees, or, as the case may be, the relevant members of the FNC must give at least 14 clear days' notice of any general meeting to all members, and to any charity trustee of the FNC who is not a member.
- (b) If it is agreed by not less than 90% of all members of the FNC, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the requirements of sub-clause (3)(a) of this clause have not been met. This sub-clause does not apply where a specified period of notice is strictly required by another clause in this constitution, by the Charities Act 2011 or by the General Regulations.
- (c) The notice of any general meeting must:
- (i) State the time and date of the meeting;
 - (ii) Give the address at which the meeting is to take place;

- (iii) Give particulars of any resolution which is to be moved at the meeting, and of the general nature of any other business to be dealt with at the meeting; and
 - (iv) If a proposal to alter the constitution of the FNC is to be considered at the meeting, include the text of the proposed alteration;
 - (v) Include, with the notice of the AGM the annual statement of accounts of the trustees' annual report, details of persons standing for election or re-election as trustees, or where allowed under clause 22 (Use of electronic communication), details of where the information may be found on the FNC's website.
- (d) Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted; or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent.
- (e) The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive a notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the FNC.

(4) Chairing of general meetings

The person nominated as chair by the charity trustees under clause 19 (2) (Chairing of meetings), shall, if present at the general meeting and willing to act, preside as chair of the meeting. Subject to that, the members of the FNC who are present at the general meeting shall elect a chair to preside at the meeting.

(5) Quorum at general meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting of the members of the FNC unless a quorum is present when the meeting starts.
- (b) Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for general meetings shall be the greater of 5% or three members.
- (c) If the meeting is being called by or at the request of the members and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is closed.
- (d) If the meeting has been called in any other way and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the chair must adjourn the meeting. The date, time and place at which the meeting will resume must either be announced by the chair or be notified to the FNC members at least seven clear days before on which it will resume.

- (e) If a quorum is not present within 15 minute of the start time of the adjourned meeting, the member or members present at the meeting constitute a quorum.
- (f) If at any time during the meeting, a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the members, the meeting must be adjourned.

(6) Voting at general meetings

- (a) Any decision other than one falling within clause 10(4) (decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting. Every member has one vote unless otherwise provided in the rights of a particular class of membership under this constitution.
- (b) A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless (before or on the declaration of the result of show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded by the chair or at least 10% of the members present at the meeting.
- (c) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. A poll on any other matters shall be taken, under the result of the poll shall be announced, in such a manner as the chair of the meeting shall decide, provided that the poll must be taken, and the result of the poll announced within 30 days of the demand for the poll.
- (d) A poll may be taken:
 - (i) At the meeting at which it was demanded; or
 - (ii) At some other time and place specified by the chair; or
 - (iii) Through the use of postal and electronic communications.
- (e) In the event of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall have a second, or casting vote.
- (f) Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is cast and the decision of the chair of the meeting shall be final.

(7) Adjournment of Meetings

The Chair may with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place. No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which could properly have been transacted at the original meeting.

12. Charity Trustees

(1) Functions and duties of charity trustees

The charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the FNC and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the FNC. It is the duty of each charity trustee:

- (a) To exercise his or her powers and to perform his or her functions in his or her capacity as a trustee of the FNC in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the FNC; and
- (b) To exercise, in the performance of those functions, such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances having regard in particular to:
 - (i) Any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or holds himself or herself out as having; and
 - (ii) If he or she acts as a charity trustee of the FNC in the course of a business or profession, to any special knowledge or experience that it is reasonable to expect of a person acting in the course of that kind of business or profession.

(2) Eligibility for trusteeship

- (a) Every charity trustee must be a natural person.
- (b) No individual may be appointed as a charity trustee of the FNC:
 - If he or she is under the age of 18 years; or
 - If he or she would automatically cease to hold office under the provisions of clause 15 (1)(f).
- (c) No one is entitled to act as a charity trustee whether on appointment or on any re-appointment until he or she has expressly acknowledged, in whatever way the charity trustees decide, his or her acceptance of the office of charity trustee.

(3) Number of charity trustees

- (a) There must be at least 3 charity trustees. If the number falls below this minimum, the remaining trustee or trustees may act only to call a meeting of the charity trustees, or appoint a new charity trustee.
- (b) A maximum of 7 charity trustees may be appointed to the FNC.

(4) First charity trustees

The first charity trustees are as follows:

Mr Tika Bahadur Sing Thakuri - Chairman

|---------------------------|-------------|
| Mr Maha Rai | - Secretary |
| Mr Bikram Rai | - Treasurer |
| Mr Ram Bahadur Pun | - Member |
| Mr Chandra Bahadur Gurung | - Member |
| Mr Nabin Kumar Siwa | - Member |
| Mr Bishnu Bahadur Singh | - Member |

13. Appointment of charity trustees

- (1) At the first annual general meeting of the members of the FNC all the charity trustees shall retire from office;
- (2) At very subsequent annual general meeting of the members of FNC, one-third of the charity trustees of the FNC shall retire from office. If the number of charity trustees is not three (3) or a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office, but if there is only one charity trustee, he or she shall retire;
- (3) The charity trustees to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment. If any trustees were last appointed or reappointed on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot;
- (4) The vacancies so arising may be filled by the decision of the members at the annual general meeting; any vacancies not filled at the annual general meeting may be filled as provided in sub clause (5) of this clause;
- (5) The members of the charity trustees may at any time decide to appoint a new charity trustee, whether in place of a charity trustee who has retired or been removed in accordance with clause 15 (Retirement and removal of charity trustees) or as an additional charity trustee, provided that the limit specified in clause 12(3) on the number of charity trustees would not as a result be exceeded;
- (6) A person so appointed by the members of the FNC shall retire in accordance with the provisions in sub-clause (2) and (3) of this clause. A person so appointed by the charity trustees shall retire at the conclusion of the next annual general meeting after the date of his or her appointment, and shall not be counted for the purpose of determining which of the charity trustees is to retire by rotation at that meeting.

14. Information for new charity trustees

The charity trustees will make available to each new charity trustee, on or before his or her first appointment:

- (a) A copy of the current version of this constitution; and
- (b) A copy of the FNC's latest trustees' annual report and statement of accounts.

15. Retirement and removal of charity trustees

- (1) A charity trustee ceases to hold office if he or she:

- (a) Retires by notifying the FNC in writing (but only if enough charity trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation takes effect to form a quorum for meetings);
 - (b) Is absent without the permission of the charity trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the trustees resolve that his or her office be vacated;
 - (c) Dies;
 - (d) In the written opinion of a registered medical practitioner that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a trustee and may remain so for more than three months;
 - (e) Is removed by the members of the FNC in accordance with sub-clause (2) of this clause; or
 - (f) Is disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of sections 178-180 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision).
- (2) A charity trustee shall be removed from office if a resolution to remove that trustee is proposed at a general meeting of the members called for that purpose and properly convened in accordance with clause 11, and the resolution is passed by a two-thirds majority of votes cast at the meeting.
- (3) A resolution to remove a charity trustee in accordance with this clause shall not take effect unless the individual concerned has been given at least 14 clear days' notice in writing that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been given a reasonable opportunity of making oral and/or written representations to the members of the FNC).

16. Reappointment of charity trustees

Any person who retires as a charity trustee by rotation or by giving notice to the FNC is eligible for reappointment. A FNC trustee who has served for three consecutive terms may not be reappointed for a fourth consecutive term but may be reappointed after an interval of at least three years.

17. Taking of decisions by charity trustees

Any decision may be taken either:

- At a meeting of the charity trustees; or
- By resolution in writing or electronic form agreed by a majority of all of the charity trustees, which may comprise either a single document or several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more charity trustees has signified their agreement.

18. Delegation by charity trustees

- (1) The charity trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee or committees, and, if they do, they shall determine the terms and conditions on which the delegation is made. The charity trustees may at any time alter those terms and conditions, or revoke the delegation.
- (2) This power is in addition to the power of delegation in the General Regulations and any other power of delegation available to the charity trustees, but is subject to the following requirements:
 - (a) a committee may consist of two or more persons, but at least one member of each committee must be a charity trustee;
 - (b) the acts and proceedings of any committee must be brought to the attention of the charity trustees as a whole as soon as is reasonably practicable; and
 - (c) the charity trustees shall from time to time review the arrangements which they have made for the delegation of their powers.

19. Meetings and proceedings of charity trustees

(1) Calling meetings

- (a) Any charity trustee may call a meeting of the charity trustees.
- (b) Subject to that, the charity trustees shall decide how their meetings are to be called, and what notice is required.

(2) Chairing of meetings

The charity trustees may appoint one of their members to chair their meetings and may at any time revoke such appointment. If no-one has been so appointed, or if the person appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within 10 minutes after the time of the meeting, the charity trustees present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting.

(3) Procedure at meetings

- (a) No decision shall be taken at a meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the decision is taken. The quorum is two charity trustees, or the number nearest to one third of the total number of charity trustees, whichever is greater, or such larger number as the charity trustees may decide from time to time. A charity trustee shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which he or she is not entitled to vote.
- (b) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of those eligible to vote.
- (c) In the case of an equality of votes, the person who chairs the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

(4) Participation in meetings by electronic means

- (a) A meeting may be held by suitable electronic means agreed by the charity trustees in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants.
- (b) Any charity trustee participating at a meeting by suitable electronic means agreed by the charity trustees in which a participant or participants may communicate with all the other participants shall qualify as being present at the meeting.
- (c) Meetings held by electronic means must comply with rules for meetings, including chairing and the taking of minutes.

20. Saving provisions

- (1) Subject to sub-clause (2) of this clause, all decisions of the charity trustees, or of a committee of charity trustees, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a charity trustee:

- Who was disqualified from holding office;
- Who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;
- Who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interest or otherwise;

If, without the vote of that charity trustee and that charity trustee counted in the quorum, the decision has been made by a majority of the charity trustees at a quorate meeting.

- (2) Sub-clause (1) of this clause does not permit a charity trustee to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the charity trustees or of a committee of charity trustees if, but for sub-clause (1), the resolution would have been void, or if the charity trustee has not complied with clause 7 (Conflicts of interest).

21. Execution of documents

- (1) The FNC shall execute documents by signature.
- (2) A document is validly executed by signature if it is signed by at least two of the charity trustees.

22. Use of electronic communications

The FNC will comply with the requirements of the Communications Provisions in the General Regulations and in particular:

- (a) The requirement to provide within 21 days to any member on request a hard copy of any document or information sent to the member otherwise than in hard copy form;

- (b) Any requirements to provide information to the Commission in a particular form or manner.

23. Keeping of Registers

The FNC must comply with its obligations under the General Regulations in relation to the keeping of, and provision of access to, a (combined) register of its members and charity trustees.

24. Minutes

The charity trustees must keep minutes of all:

- (1) Appointments of officers made by the charity trustees;
- (2) Proceedings at general meetings of the FNC;
- (3) Meetings of the charity trustees and committees of charity trustees including:
 - the names of the trustees present at the meeting;
 - the decisions made at the meetings; and
 - where appropriate the reasons for the decisions;
- (4) Decisions made by the charity trustees otherwise than in meetings.

25. Accounting records, accounts, annual reports and returns, register maintenance

- (1) The charity trustees must comply with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 with regard to the keeping of accounting records, to the preparation and scrutiny of statements of account, and to the preparation of annual reports and returns. The statements of account, reports and returns must be sent to the Charity Commission, regardless of the income of the FNC, within 10 months of the financial year end.
- (2) The charity trustees must comply with their obligation to inform the Commission within 28 days of any change in the particulars of the FNC entered on the Central Register of Charities.

26. Rules

The charity trustees may from time to time make such reasonable and proper rules or byelaws as they may deem necessary or expedient for the proper conduct and management of the FNC, but such rules or bye laws must not be inconsistent with any provision of this constitution. Copies of any such rules or bye laws currently in force must be made available to any member of the FNC on request.

27. Disputes

If a dispute arises between members of the FNC about the validity or propriety of anything done by the members under this constitution, and the dispute cannot be resolved by agreement, the parties to the dispute must first try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation before resorting to litigation.

28. Amendment of constitution

As provided by sections 224-227 of the Charities Act 2011:

- (1) This constitution can only be amended:
 - (a) By resolution agreed in writing by all members of the FNC; or
 - (b) By a resolution passed by a 75% majority of those voting at a general meeting of the members of the FNC.
- (2) Any alteration of clause 3 (Objects), clause 29 (Voluntary winding up or dissolution), this clause, or of any provision where the alteration would provide authorisation for any benefit to be obtained by charity trustees or members of the FNC or persons connected with them, requires the prior written consent of the Charity Commission.
- (3) No amendment that is inconsistent with the provisions of the Charities Act 2011 or the General Regulations shall be valid.
- (4) A copy of every resolution amending the constitution, together with a copy of the FNC's constitution as amended must be sent to the Commission within 15 days from the date on which the resolution is passed. The amendment does not take effect until it has been recorded in the Register of Charities.

29. Voluntary winding up or dissolution

- (1) As provided by the Dissolution Regulations, the FNC may be dissolved by resolution of its members. Any decision by the members to wind up or dissolve the FNC can only be made:
 - (a) At a general meeting of the members of the FNC called in accordance with clause 11 (Meetings of members), of which not less than 14 days' notice has been given to those eligible to attend and vote:
 - (i) By a resolution passed by a 75% majority of those voting, or
 - (ii) By a resolution passed by decision taken without a vote and without any expression of dissent in response to the question put to the general meeting; or
 - (b) By a resolution agreed in writing by all members of the FNC.
- (2) Subject to the payment of all the FNC's debts:
 - (a) Any resolution for the winding up of the FNC, or for the dissolution of the FNC without winding up, may contain a provision directing how any remaining assets of the FNC shall be applied.
 - (b) If the resolution does not contain such a provision, the charity trustees must decide how any remaining assets of the FNC shall be applied.
 - (c) In either case the remaining assets must be applied for charitable purposes the same as or similar to those of the FNC.

- (3) The FNC must observe the requirements of the Dissolution Regulations in applying to the Commission for the FNC to be removed from the Register of Charities, and in particular:
- (a) The charity trustees must send with their application to the Commission:
 - (i) A copy of the resolution passed by the members of the FNC;
 - (ii) A declaration by the charity trustees that any debts and other liabilities of the FNC have been settled or otherwise provided for in full; and
 - (iii) A statement by the charity trustees setting out the way in which any property of the FNC has been or is to be applied prior to its dissolution in accordance with this constitution;
 - (b) The charity trustees must ensure that a copy of the application is sent within seven days to every member and employee of the FNC, and to any charity trustee of the FNC who was not privy to the application.
- (4) If the FNC is to be wound up or dissolved in any other circumstances, the provisions of the Dissolution Regulations must be followed.

30. Interpretation

In this constitution:

“Connected person” means:

- (a) A child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother or sister of the charity trustee;
- (b) The spouse or civil partner of the charity trustee or of any person falling within sub-clause (a) above;
- (c) A person carrying on business in partnership with the charity trustee or with any person falling within sub-clause (a) or (b) above;
- (d) An institution which is controlled –
 - (i) By the charity trustee or any connected person falling within sub-clause (a), (b), or (c) above; or
 - (ii) By two or more persons falling within sub-clause (d)(i), when taken together.
- (e) A body corporate in which –
 - (i) The charity trustee or any connected person falling within sub-clauses (a) to (c) has a substantial interest; or

- (ii) Two or more persons falling within sub-clause (e)(i) who, when taken together, have a substantial interest.

Section 118 of the Charities Act 2011 applies for the purposes of interpreting the terms used in this constitution.
